

HALO Electronics, Inc. to Expand our Relationship with Avnet Memec to the Americas

Press Release: April 12, 2012

HALO is pleased to announce the expansion of our existing distribution agreement in Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA), with Avnet Memec, a division of Avnet Electronics Marketing Americas, a business region of Avnet, Inc.

“Expanding our relationship with Avnet Memec to the Americas provides a unique opportunity to our customers,” according to Jeff Heaton, vice president, technical marketing, HALO. “The synergistic product offering and the technical expertise of the Avnet Memec team, along with HALO’s 20 year magnetic experience and patented SMD construction should create an exciting and meaningful relationship.”

“HALO’s industry leading technology is a perfect complement to the Avnet Memec product offering and provides a great isolation option for designs that integrate Ethernet and/or T1/E1 connections,” said Phil Sansone, senior vice president, Avnet Memec. “Our team of technical specialists is ready to help our customers in the Americas find ways to utilize the technology offered from HALO.”
